WAR ON COAST FIGHTS. Senator Says He Will Push Bill for Their Suppression.

San Francisco, Cal., Jan. 16.-Fighting enthusiasts are in fear that State Senator Hartman's threats of putting through a is bill against all kinds of glove fighting in the State of California will be carried out. in the state of does what he says he will is If the senator does what he says he will and his plans otherwise go through, the State will be closed in all parts to the glove wielders. Gus Hartman once was a strong friend of the fighting clubs. He was a State representative when the Raiston bill was introduced, and as that measure would have suppressed the fighters and their matches he was a bitter opponent of it. Now this is all changed. He is "agin" the fighters first, last, and always. He thinks it is time they were put away and for all time. His change of attitude is a puzzle to many and the senator himself will not admit that he has been badly treated by the promoters in the matter of tickets to recent big fights. But something has soured him decidedly on the
